

T.S. ELIOT FESTIVAL

SECOND ANNUAL T.S. ELIOT FESTIVAL AT LITTLE GIDDING

☀ Friday 18 May 2007

7.30 p.m. 'If you came this way': Landscapes of the heart in Four Quartets a slideshow by David Huisman, of the (American) T.S. Eliot Society

☀ Saturday 19 May 2007

2.00 p.m. ANNUAL LITTLE GIDDING LECTURE OF THE T.S. ELIOT SOCIETY
'NEVER CEASE FROM EXPLORATION'
by the Revd Simon Reynolds, until recently Succentor of St Paul's Cathedral

3.15 p.m. TEA (in the garden if fine)

A NEW POEM FOR LITTLE GIDDING
by Elizabeth James

... one cannot hope / To emulate – but there is no competition –

4.00 p.m. TALK by Lyndall Gordon author of T.S. Eliot: An Imperfect Life

5.30 p.m. JAZZ IN THE GARDEN
played by the Oundle School Jazz Trio

6.00 p.m. BUFFET SUPPER

7.30 p.m. in Steeple Gidding Church WORLD PREMIÈRE of
'LITTLE GIDDING: a place in and out of time'
a musical composition by Jonathan Cohen inspired by Little Gidding: the place, and the poetry of T. S. Eliot

☀ Sunday 20 May 2007

11.00 a.m. HOLY COMMUNION SERVICE IN LITTLE GIDDING CHURCH including the re-dedication of the Ferrar Window
Celebrant and Preacher: the Revd Dr Malcolm Guite

Followed by Coffee and Lunch

This weekend is organised by the Friends of Little Gidding and the T.S. Eliot Society

For further information and tickets, please contact:
Ferrar House, Little Gidding, Huntingdon, PE28 5RJ
Telephone: 01832 293 383 Email: info@ferrarhouse.co.uk

All day Saturday ticket: £20.00; Buffet supper and evening programme only: £12.00

Our next big event is the annual Little Gidding Pilgrimage

3.00 p.m. on Saturday, 21 July 2007

Led by the Bishop of Ely: the Rt Revd Dr Anthony Russell