

Submit your work to the 2018-2019

MU CELEBRATION OF STUDENT WRITING

The Celebration of Writing is a campus-wide showcase of student writing to recognize and make visible the intellectual work of students in Writing Intensive and English Composition courses and to provide those writers with a public audience.

What can I submit?

- Individual papers or excerpts of papers suitable for a 10-15 minute presentation
- 3-6 papers from a class which students would present in a 45-minute panel
- Posters, videos, performance pieces and other multimodal compositions

Submission Criteria

We're looking for broad representation across colleges, disciplines, course levels, genres, and types of composition. The only requirement is that your work must have been completed for a 2018-2019 Writing Intensive or English Composition course (English 1000, 2010, 2030).

What to include?

Students and instructors can submit a title and a short abstract or description of the project, paper or panel to muasenglishceleb1@missouri.edu. Please include the student and instructor's contact information and the class information (with semester and section number).

Selection and Celebration

Students (and instructors) will be notified by mid-April of acceptance into the Celebration's lineup. The Celebration of Student writing, co-hosted by the Campus Writing Program and the English Department's Composition Program, will be held on Friday, May 3rd at the MU Student Center. Lunch will be provided free of charge to participants and guests who RSVP to the event.
